

JOB VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT CIVIL ENGINEER FSN 10

1. Embassy Doha has an immediate vacancy for a Civil Engineer position to work in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in Doha, Qatar. Post appreciates assistance from addressee posts in advertising this vacancy among its staff. This position is classified at the FSN-10 (FP-05/05) grade level.

2. Basic function of position:

The incumbent is responsible for the construction management, technical engineering support, and quality assurance on major construction projects being performed in Qatar by the Corps of Engineers. Projects provide construction of facilities to include airfields and lighting systems, maintenance hangars and other specialized facilities, office buildings, training facilities, storage buildings, and infrastructure work such as roads, electrical, water, and sewer distribution systems. Serves as Contracting Officer's Representative (COR) for construction management of assigned contracts.

3. Required qualifications:

- Education: A bachelor's or higher degree in civil, electrical, mechanical engineering, or architecture is required.
- Prior Work Experience: A minimum of six years experience in multi-disciplinary engineering fields (civil, electrical, and mechanical), including experience on U.S. designed and constructed facilities utilizing U.S. standards and specifications is required.
- Language Proficiency: Level III (good working knowledge) in English is required.
- Knowledge: Must have thorough professional knowledge in engineering design and construction. Must be familiar with the construction and design codes such as the ASTM.
- Skills and Abilities: Computer skills in Microsoft office and scheduling are required.

4. Employment information: This is a full-time Personal Services Agreement (PSA) position.

5. Salary and benefits:

Salary for Grade FSN-10 Step 01:

Rate of Exchange: US $ 1.00 = QRS 3.64

- Basic Rate: QRs 190,995.00

- Transportation Allowance: QRs 8,400
- Housing Allowance: QRs 106,500
- End of Year Bonus: 1/12th of annual basic salary payable to employee each year with earnings of pay period 24.
- Mid-Year Bonus: 1/24th of annual basic salary payable to employee each year with earnings of pay period 10.

Other Benefits:

- Homeward passage allowance to the nearest airport of home on record for employee and eligible dependents, i.e., legal spouse who resides in Qatar and has a residency permit, and a maximum of three unmarried, dependent children under the age of 19 who has a residency permit is authorized after every one year of service.
- Life insurance coverage for the employee and medical insurance coverage for the employee and eligible dependents.
- Employee will be eligible to join post's Locally Employed Staff Provident Fund Plan after successful completion of a six-month probationary period. The Plan allows the contribution of 5 percent of basic salary by the employee, which will be matched, by a 5 percent U.S. Government Contribution.

6. Please send a completed universal application for employment, DS-174 to HRODoha@state.gov this form can be downloaded at: <http://qatar.usembassy.gov/media/pdfs/ds-0174.pdf>

7. Closing date for submitting applications is February 18, 2013.